RARS General Meeting

Topic: Radio and the Disappearance of Amelia Earhart and Fred Noonan

Presenter: Brian Harrison, KN4R

Date: May 12, 2020

Time: Meeting at 7:30 PM, informal gathering at 7PM on Zoom.

Where: Zoom

Presidents Message, May, 2020

From what I hear, Hams are keeping themselves plenty busy while in we are under shelter-in-place orders. New nets have been introduced, some new antennas have been built and raised, and some old ones repaired and re-hung. A tube auction was held, and some used or antique equipment has been overhauled and put into service.

We haven't stopped meeting with each other, either. We've just put our meetings on-the-air or on-the-internet. The April RARS club meeting was held as a special net on the 146.64 repeater, with a short business meeting and an entertaining program that was organized by Virginia Enzor, NC4VA. It was the first time I'd chaired a meeting and acted in a play using a push-to-talk button! A good time was had by all.

The Raleigh Amateur Radio Society

The Raleigh Amateur Radio Society, Inc. (RARS) was founded in 1969 and continues to serve and support the amateur radio community in the greater Triangle area. In 1999, the society incorporated a new RARS and obtained 501(c)(3) non-profit tax status.

The objectives of the club are to promote worldwide friendship through amateur radio; to be of public service by providing radio communications in times of disaster, emergency, or civic needs; to educate members in radio technique, and to provide training classes to assist in obtaining amateur radio licenses.

Anyone interested in amateur radio is eligible to apply for membership. Dues for regular licensed amateurs are $18 per year (from July 1 through June 30). Additional immediate family members pay $5 each per year. Dues for licensed amateurs older than 59 or younger than 16 are $12 per year. Dues for non-licensed associate members are $9 per year. Applications for membership may be obtained from the treasurer or on the RARS website (www.rars.org).

Exciter

The Exciter is the official newsletter of the Raleigh Amateur Radio Society. It appears each month as a PDF on the RARS website at www.rars.org. Members receive email notification when the latest version is available. Please provide your email address to the Treasurer.

The Exciter welcomes articles, advertisements, and other contributions. To submit a piece to the newsletter, please contact the Editor. The Editor reserves the right to edit any and all pieces. The submission deadline for each month's Exciter is the Saturday that is ten days before the general meeting. All submissions must be final. Drafts are not accepted.

The views expressed in the Exciter are those of the individual authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the Editor or RARS.

Our next club meeting on May 12 has been planned as a Zoom meeting. We'll have a short business meeting followed by a program I've long wanted to hear, "Radio and the Disappearance of Amelia Earhart and Fred Noonan," by Brian Harrison, KN4R. You should receive an email in the next few days with Zoom log-in details. No snacks or door prizes, though.

Taco Thursday get-togethers have been temporarily replaced by a new net at the same time as usual, 11:30 each Thursday. Plans are now being made for that net to be expanded to include a "tailgate" style get-together at Pleasant Valley off Glenwood, with take-out food available from nearby restaurants. Tune into the nightly nets at 8:00 on 146.64 for announcements and details.

We've also adapted our board meetings to Zoom. Members are welcome to attend as visitors. We all miss the outings to Rudino's following those meetings, though. Maybe someone can figure out how to do those gatherings on the air.

Field day is still scheduled for the last weekend in June. As of now, we are planning for it to continue as always, with Hams meeting at the Carroll farm to assemble and operate the club stations, a GOTA station, a barbecue dinner, and some educational presentations. The ARRL hasn't yet cancelled the event, but they have advised that we consider creative ways to meet Field Day objectives working from home, our back yards, empty parking lots, etc. – just in case the stay at home orders are still in place that weekend. Let us know what your ideas are for field day alternatives – just in case.

We haven't planned where and how to hold the June club meeting yet. Possibly by then we'll be able to meet in person again. Stay tuned to next month's Exciter, www.rars.org, and announcements on the nightly nets as planning proceeds.

Until we can resume normal in-person meeting schedules, I hope you'll all have fun with Ham radio activities. Catch you on the air!

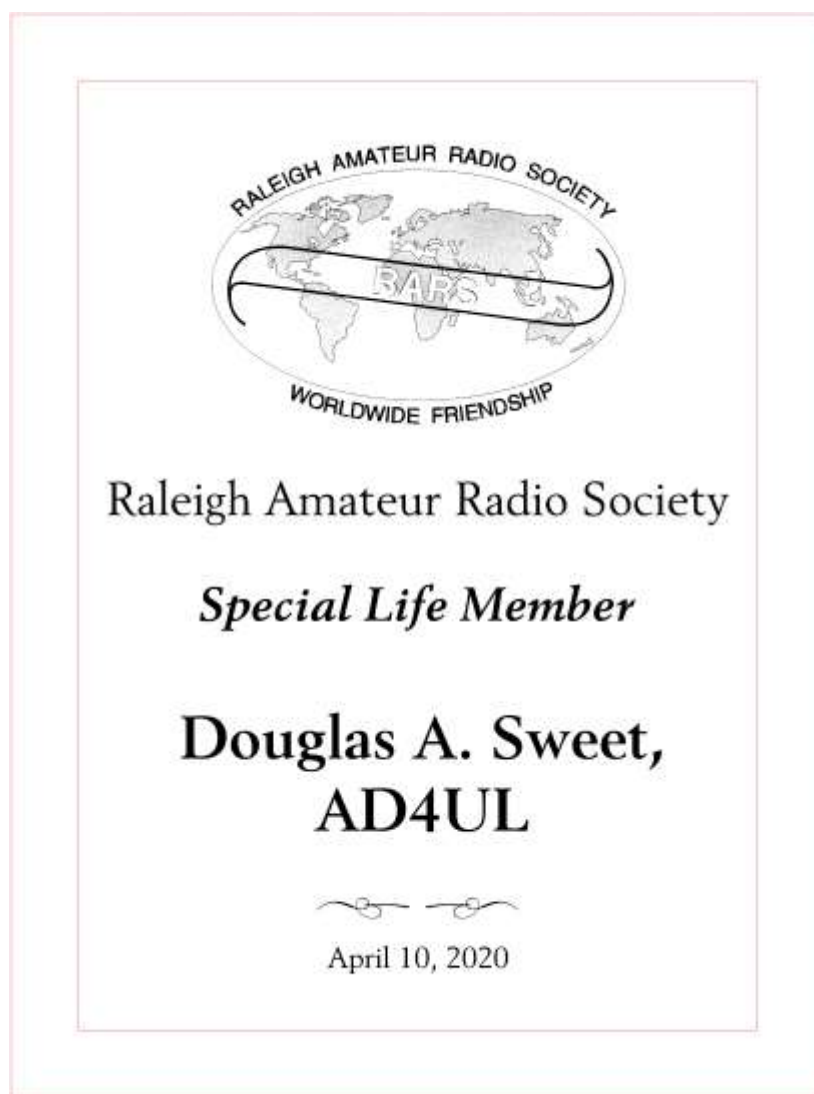

73 to all.

March 2020 RARS Awards

This plaque was mailed after the March meeting

Hello Doug,

We hope you and your family are fairing ok under these unique circumstances we are in.

RARS would like to recognize your long and faithful service to the Club and to the ham community at large by making you a Special Life Member of the Raleigh Amateur Radio Society. There have been few so faithful to our fraternity and RARS that it seems only fitting to make you a true "one of us." We recall your Public Service and RARSfest activities.

We were planning to present this plaque to you at the RARSfest Supper on April 10, 2020. We were sorry this did not happen so we are sending it along. We hope you will join us next year on April 3, 2021 and future RARSfests. Stay safe!

Sincerely, John Honeycutt, N8ZU

April 14, 2020 RARS meeting

Due to the coronavirus pandemic, the April meeting was held on the 146.64 repeater.

A Tribute to the Golden Age of Radio: The RARS Variety Show by Virginia Enzor NC4VA

The program for the RARS March meeting was a tribute to the Golden Age of Radio, a time from the 1930s and 1940s when families would gather around the radio to listen.

Some of these years fell during the Great Depression. Most folks did without luxuries, and some struggled to make payments on necessities. Folks wanted their radios though, because radio brought news, entertainment and often an escape from hard times.

Radios of this time period were not small devices. They were housed in sizable wooden cabinets that accommodated numerous large vacuum tubes. In fact, these radios resembled rather large elaborate pieces of furniture.

Families loved shows like "Amos 'n Andy," "Gunsmoke," "The Shadow," "Our Miss Brooks," "Superman," "Ellery Queen," "Dick Tracey," "Buck Rogers," and the "Sixty-Four Dollar Question."

You might wonder how radio could hold a listener's interest for several hours at a time. The answer lies in the word imagination. Listeners imagined what people, places and situations looked like.

To give folks a flavor of the Golden Age of Radio, we created the RARS Variety Show especially for the March "on the air" meeting.

Since comedy shows were popular during the Golden Age of Radio, the first act of our variety program was a tribute to Abbott and Costello. Abbott and Costello were one of the most popular comedy teams in radio and television history; they became famous for their act, "Who's on First?"

Jack Baker K4WFJ portrayed Abbott and baseball fan Rob Cox N4MN portrayed Costello in the hilarious routine "Who's on First?"

Mystery radio shows were big during the Golden Age of radio, and there was something called Five-Minute Mysteries. These five-minute mystery programs were used by stations as fillers; nonetheless, they were complete dramatizations with sound effects and music. These were thought-provoking programs for budding detectives!

Naturally, the second act of our variety show featured a Five-Minute Mystery by the RARS Radio Relay Rangers under the direction of John Honeycutt N8ZU. The Rangers presented "My Pal Patsy", an original radio play adapted by the director for ham radio today. The play featured Carl Davis W8WZ as the announcer and Patsy, John Honeycutt as Doctor Melville, Bob Chapman NC1X as Lem, and Joe Squashic W4TTO as Gatti. It was a fun “who done it”!

Finally, game shows were quite prevalent during the Golden Age of Radio! Some of you may have heard or heard of Quiz Kids, Professor Quiz, Uncle Jim’s Question Bee, Queen for a Day, Kay Kyser’s Kollege of Musical Knowledge, and Truth or Consequences.

The final act of our variety show paid homage to game shows with a modern twist entitled, “What’s My Callsign?” with host Bob Brown N4GEB. Listeners guessed the callsigns of RARS members based on clues the game show host provided.

Thanks to all who participated in the RARS Variety Show!

Old Time Radio Shows

Broadcast radio started many years ago in the 1920s. I asked one of my aunts who is in her 80s about OTR. She said the whole family would listen to the old shows. She mentioned The lone Ranger, My Favorite Husband and others.

Today if you want to listen to these shows there are many ways to do it.

This website has many free recordings. <https://archive.org/details/oldtimeradio>

There are other websites that are setup to stream the audio from the old shows. One of them is WNAR. (Nuts About Radio). Their web site is <http://www.wnar-am.com/graphical/>

Many times when I am working in my shop I will take my laptop and connect it to good quality computer speakers and listen to WNAR.

Another one is Antioch OTR at this URL <http://radio.macinmind.com/>

You can find others by searching for OTR on Google.

If you have an internet radio, do the same thing and search for OTR.

SiriusXM satellite Radio has OTR on channel 148.

There are free apps for your cellphone and tablets. I use one called, Old Time Radio Player. It has eight different genres and many different shows. Here are the titles of a few, 21st Precinct, The Black Museum, Calling All Cars, Perry Mason, Tales of the Texas Ranger, Superman, Challenge of the Yukon, Boston Blackie, Philip Marlowe, Sherlock Homes, Yours Truly, Jonny Dollar, X Minus One and many others.

William Conrad was Mat Dillon in Gunsmoke on the radio
Lucille Ball was the lead character in My Favorite Husband.

You can also buy OTR recordings. Here are two places <https://www.otrcat.com> and www.radiospirits.com.

Free two 1932 radios, Posted May 4th, 2020 by: N4TL Contact: n4tl2@yahoo.com

These two radios were given to me and I have decided not to restore them. One is a Philco model 80 or 81. The other one is a Crosley model 54. All the major parts are in the radio, chassis, ps, speakers. Some tubes are missing. there are no knobs, the grill cloth has to be replaced on both radios. Send me an email if you are interested.

ATLAS 210X SSB 10~80 Transceiver as a fun STAY HOME restoration project $60

Posted April 30th, 2020 by: KW4IQ Contact: inventorgrissom@gmail.com

This was passed to me by my SK father WA5RDQ in the early eighties and remained in a box on my garage floor for 38 years before I rediscovered it while moving last month. I've priced it low enough to make it well worth restoring because it was my fathers favorite and I would be interested in buying it back after restoration. More details can be found by visiting eBay URL <https://www.ebay.com/p/129641869> where many 210X transceivers are listed.

President:

John opened a discussion of the effects of COVID-19 on the future events of the club. The board made the decision to suspend all face to face activities indefinitely.

Treasurer: Due to the cancellation of 2020 RARS*fest*, monies will be refunded to the pre-paid participants. Checks have been cut for credit and PayPal purchases. Checks for cash customers need to be sent out. Carl Davis suggested that members who had purchased tickets to RARS*fest* be given the opportunity to donate their ticket purchase money to the club in lieu of a refund. The board decided against the idea, partially due to COVID-19 having an adverse effect on some members incomes.

Education Director:

We are on target for the fall class.

Field Day Chair:

In consideration of the current circumstances with COVID-19, the decision has been made to continue with Field Day plans. The tent group has been contacted. Food plans are currently being researched.

Exciter Editor:

Any item for the next Exciter is due by April 4th.

Webmaster:

Hank has contacted RARS*fest* vendors to note the cancellation. Going through the club website and cleaning up broken and outdated links. Owners and moderators have been set up for groups.io. The RARS forum has been moved to groups.io. Noticed an increase in usage.
